Lausanne	Lausanne is located on lake Léman between Geneva and Montreux. The international airport of Geneva is approximately 45minutes away. Lausanne is well integrated in the Swiss highway and train network.
By Car	Lausanne is approximately 45 min from Geneva and 1h from Bern and 3h from Zurich. To reach the PSE, when approaching Lausanne from the highway: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Follow the direction "Lausanne-Sud" - Take the exit "EPFL-UNIL" - Turn right (following the signs for EPFL), follow the road towards "Morges" for about 1km - Turn right at the SECOND entrance of EPFL (intersection with traffic lights) – this is AFTER the high-rising building with antenna platforms on the right. At the roundabout with the dinosaur in the center, turn right after ¾ turns. We are located at Building C is the one behind the 2 others. Visitor Parking is available behind the PSE buildings.
By Public Transportation	There are express trains every half hour to every hour from Geneva (45 min), Geneva airport, Basel, Bern (1.15h), Zurich (2.5h), and Zurich airport. From the train station in Lausanne, take either a cab or public transportation as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Metro to Lausanne-Flon, then Metro m1 from Lausanne-Flon to EPFL (journey takes approx. 30 min). You can also get a train that stops at Renens train station (semi-direct from Geneva every hour), then get the Metro m1 from Renens train station to EPFL (10 mins). From the metro station, cross the street to enter the campus and then go on strait through the EPFL in direction of the lake (to the South).
